A delusion is a mistaken belief that is held with strong conviction even in the presence of superior evidence to the contrary. As a pathology, it is distinct from a belief based on false or incomplete information, confabulation, dogma, illusion, or some other misleading effects of perception. They have been found to occur in the context of many pathological states (both general physical and ...

Proficiency in mathematics is important for academic, economic, and life success. For example, greater academic achievement in math is related to college completion, higher earnings, and better health decisions (Adelman, 2006; Reyna, Nelson, Han, & Dieckmann, 2009; Ritchie & Bates, 2013). Individual differences in math knowledge emerge in preschool and are fairly stable.
